If you cancel between 8-15 days prior to the course then you will receive 50% of the fees paid, less the cost of the book we mailed to you. If you wish to re-schedule between 8-15 days prior to the course then you will be charged a further 50% of the fees, less the cost of the book we mailed. While we fully appreciate those who need to attend family emergencies etc. without notice, we regret there can be no last minute refunds or re-scheduling without further additional costs.
